

Fire and Water is the name of this Inspired Flow Art piece. The colors in it are:

- Light orange representing bright outlook
- Orange representing aglow with happiness
- Blood orange representing refreshing
- Watered red representing passion tempered with wisdom
- Gold representing treasured friend
- Light turquoise representing wise journeys
- Sky blue representing possibilities unending
- Blue representing calming presence
- Silver representing strength of experience

In what most would view as a dichotomy of self, you make opposite characteristics (like fire and water) flow in a way that brings a sense of completeness. These parts of you can mix or can be separate, but it is all good and all correct because of the original design. You have been beautifully and intricately created.

Your ability to separate out the important from the trivial, brings the spectacular out of the otherwise mundane. The ability to showcase what is exceptional, without marginalizing the participants and pieces, is a unique and beautiful talent. While some may not understand your gift, and others are jealous, refrain from letting anyone detract or diminish who you were created to be. See yourself through the lens of your gift. Separate out the words and thoughts of others from yourself, see your pure design and flow with the essence of who you were created to be.

We hope the art and the colorful encouragement speak to you. Enjoy life and stay in the flow!
