You wear many hats and play many roles in your life—comforter, healer, nurturer, teacher, protector. You walk in a love that does not have boundaries, consistently stepping up to the plate to act as a support to any person that is brought across your path. You may not always feel strong enough or smart enough to tend to every need and fight every battle—and you don't have to be. The greatest gift you have is the ability to empower and embolden others.

The beauty of a rainbow is multiplied by the different colors seen. It's the multiple facets that make it what it is; that draws the attention of so many. And just as those different colors meld together to form a beautiful creation, so you are. Let all the things that describe you – your character, your nature, your gifts, and even your quirks, be the things that compliment and complete the beauty of who you are and who you are called to be.

And just as a double rainbow is even more spectacular, may there be a double impact on the lives you will touch throughout your life.

We hope the art and the colorful encouragement speak to you. Enjoy life and stay in the flow!
