You are like sedimentary rock. Sometimes you may feel ordinary but you are truly special and unique. You have intricate layers that reveal deep truths and show the value of all that you are. These layers come from many seasons of life that have brought invaluable experiences, knowledge and wisdom. You have many skills, talents and abilities to offer to the world. Be confident in who you are, in what you have and what you can do. You are not ordinary. You are precious and beyond value.

When others are in your presence, they feel “home”. Your layers of life experience, talents, traumas, and triumphs give others a firm foundation to lean into. This trait makes you a treasure to your loved ones.

We hope the art and the colorful encouragement speak to you. Enjoy life and stay in the flow!
