

Blooming Glory is the name of this Inspired Flow Art piece. The colors in it are:

- Purple representing fruitfulness
- Aqua representing watering/care
- Butterscotch representing light
- Pale moss representing life

You are glorious, spectacular, unique and stunning. Just as flowers grow into their magnificent glory and beauty, the same goes for you. With each passing moment – regardless of it's joy or hardship, you only blossom into a more glorious being. So keep watering, loving, and caring for the flower seeds within you, as nobody but you need help them to bloom into their own uniqueness.

Just as life blooms in the desert after a little bit of rain, much can blossom within you with just a little bit of nurturing. Remember that isn't required to come from someone else. Your growth and beauty isn't dependent on anyone's input but your own. So regardless of the attention or lack thereof from others, give yourself the time and care you need to bloom.

And though we don't require outside attention to become all we're able to be doesn't mean we shouldn't take the time to water and nurture those around us when the opportunity arises. So sow in love to those around you. Speak words of life and encouragement rather than criticism or judgment. Be intentional to build up and resist any urge to tear down. Speak life over the areas of beauty and rich possibility in others and allow that life-giving encouragement to bear fruit in yourself too.

We hope the art and the colorful encouragement speak to you. Enjoy life and stay in the flow!
