There is so much more to you than what is on the surface. The beauty that lies below is so much more vital and lasting than the kind that is simply skin deep. So cloth yourself in goodness and mercy, and crown yourself with love. Let honesty be your garment, and your steps be shod with gratitude. Be true to yourself.

Your outward garb doesn't define you – for the good or the bad. You need not to be attired in certain clothing to be someone worth knowing. Culture tries to dictate what is beautiful or handsome, yet outward clothing and fashions are forever changing. Being truly attractive comes from within.

Your noble character and integrity will always clothe you in splendor. Your wealth lies in your reputation of honesty, your attitude of humility and honor, your just actions, and your peaceful spirit. Be true to yourself. Your self image is yours to define. No one can do that for you. You are powerful. You are rich. You are stunning.

The world may tell you your value lies in what fashion you wear, what car you drive, and how much visibility you have. Yet, what does your life tell you? You are rich in character, integrity and honor. Your heart, passion and motives attract and inspire others. Those who are around you desire to emulate you because how you live your life is beautiful. Be true to you because no one else can be you.

We hope the art and the colorful encouragement speak to you. Enjoy life and stay in the flow!
